Utah's Legal History

The Utah State Historical Society is planning a special issue of the Utah Historical Quarterly on aspects of Utah's legal history including significant legal issues, the evolution of court systems in Utah, legal education, practitioners who have made significant contributions, the practice of law in the state, and other relevant legal topics.

Manuscripts should not exceed 7,500 words in length and should follow The Chicago Manual of Style 15th edition.

Submit manuscripts to Kent Powell, Managing Editor, Utah Historical Quarterly, 300 Rio Grande, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101, by February 1, 2008. Guest editors for the special issue include Nick Coppin, Michael Homer, and Justice Ronald Nehring.
